

The Burrinja Gallery Kids on Tour program will feature three of the following free activities everyday:

Hotham Street Ladies

At Home with the Hotham Street Ladies

Share your favourite meal on a specially designed placemat or create your own street tag using hundreds and thousands. The Hotham Street Ladies have created a series of DIY activities for you to roll up your sleeves and get icing.

John Nixon

The Donkey's Tail Jnr

The Donkey's Tail Jnr, by John Nixon, encourages you to create your own musical scores using a variety of stamps selected by the artist. These are then performed using handmade and unusual instruments.

Selina Ou

(hashtag) clickwithme

Photographer Selina Ou captures people in their workplace and at home. For Melbourne Now, Ou has created a project inviting you to take and share a photo of someone in your community.

Jan Senbergs

Show us your World

Jan Senbergs has always been fascinated by works of art he calls 'picture maps'. Draw a 'picture map' and show us your world - it could be a picture of your street, suburb, city or a world that only exists in your imagination.

Meredith Turnbull

Co-workers, Hanging Sculpture

Meredith Turnbull creates large and small sculptural forms. Children and adults are invited to create their own wearable sculpture exploring shape, scale and texture.

Preston Zly

Fables go Pop

Preston Zly are makers of bespoke shoes. Watch their film about how they make shoes and be inspired to create your own Preston Zly paper shoe to keep and display at home.

Event Details

Melbourne Now Kids on Tour | 16 January - 9 February

Burrinja Cultural Centre, Cnr Glenfern and Matson Drive Upwey

More info www.burrinja.org.au | 03 9754 8723 | events@burrinja.org.au

The Melbourne Now Kids Program has been generously supported by Melbourne Now Champions The Dewhurst Family and the Truby and Florence Williams Charitable Trust.